Recap

Capitol Punishment: can no longer be seen as a means of self defense and therefore is never justified in a civilized society.

Euthanasia: can never be justified as it is a cry for help, relief from some sort of pain. If physical we need to work at relief; if not possible we offer our pain with Christ for others. If because we do not want to burden others, feel useless, of no value we need to allow others to be inconvenienced and minister to our needs as we have to others.

Abortion: can never, never be justified as it is taking the life of the most innocent of our brothers and sisters. There is no case where it is ever demanded as the circumstances of conception to not change the integrity of this new person; not for rape or incest or poverty. The circumstances of the pregnancy (ectopic pregnancy or cancer) may require a medical intervention which unintentionally ends the life of the child but is not a direct attack on the child."

"There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for another"
