

Parents: begin weekly lessons for your child at appropriate age level, other material available

October 6, 2024 - Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The phrase in today's psalm, "May you see your children's children," is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives."

Introducing our parish family to MyFaithWalk.org. It is also an App. which has so many great resources. Find something to share with your youth each week. High Schoolers, tap into Life Teens or Ycatechism. Just explore the whole app. You will be glad you did.

Child Internet Safety: get Bark.us it will monitor all your child's activities on the phone and give you warning messages so you can talk about it.

MACON VILLAGE: Do you know someone needing to downsize and move into town. We have a location close to church available to locate your own tiny-home. There is only room for 6 right next to Sr. Rita. Anyone over 55 is eligible. Keep this in mind when that time comes for you or a friend.

ONE TO ONE The bishops are challenging you to meet your call in bringing others to Christ. Bring them to an open forum beginning study SEPT 31, 7:00pm Piedmont
